SECTION 1 – INTRODUCTION

Guided by the teaching of the Qur'an and the teaching of Prophet Muhammed (PBUH), we promote a community of unity, care and peace where:

- Each boy's worth is recognised.
- Each boy's contribution is recognised.
- No one benefits at the expense of another.

We wish to encourage an environment where independence is celebrated, and individuals can flourish without fear. Every student has the right to be safe and happy in School and be protected if he is feeling vulnerable.

The curriculum at AJI is used as a vehicle to support this policy. PSHE, Assemblies, Morning Prayers, Weekly Assemblies and subject input (e.g. Islamic Studies, RE) are important contributors to this.

The school also endeavours to work to UNICEF article 19 of 'having the right to be protected from being hurt and mistreated, in body or mind'.

The school is aware that bullying is linked to other areas such as radicalisation, mental health, child sexual exploitation, lower attainment, children missing, truancy and poorer attendance. As such we take bullying seriously.

Race, religion, sex, disability and other social disadvantages linked to the Equality Act and the Protected Characteristics are taken seriously.

In having a bullying policy, we aim to meet parts of standard 12 and 16 and appendix A of the national minimum standards (see links below for access to the relevant government guidance):

- Keeping children safe in education 2023 \(publishing.service.gov.uk\)
- Boarding schools: national minimum standards - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

SECTION 2 – AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Our main aim is to raise levels of consciousness and awareness so that:

- To raise awareness of bullying and create a school ethos which encourages children to disclose and discuss incidences of bullying behaviour.
- To bring about conditions in which bullying is less likely to happen in the future.
- To ensure bullying is prevented in so far as reasonably practical.
- To clarify the reporting processes.
- To prevent, de-escalate and/or stop any continuation of harmful behaviour.
- To react to bullying incidents in a reasonable, proportionate, and consistent way.
- To safeguard the pupil who has experienced bullying and to trigger sources of support for the pupil.
- To provide support for the perpetrator whilst developing strategies to enable perpetrators to be accountable for their behaviour.

SECTION 3 – GUIDELINES

DEFINITION OF BULLYING – The Government defines bullying as “behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally”

- a) Bullying is the wilful, conscious desire to hurt, threaten or frighten someone else.
- b) It may be verbal, physical or psychological.
- c) It is necessarily a repetitive action which causes distress not only at the time of each ‘attack’ but also by the threat of future ‘attacks’.
- d) It is characterised by the dominance of the powerful over the powerless in whatever context.
- e) It can be short-term or continue over a period of time.
- f) It can be overt or subtle.
- g) It can be perpetrated by an individual or a group.

Bullying can take many forms which include:

- emotional (being unfriendly, threatening looks/gestures, tormenting e.g., hiding belongings)

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/preventing-and-tackling-bullying>

- physical (pushing, hitting, shoving or any form of physical violence)
- verbal (name calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours)
- sexual and sexist (unwanted physical contact or sexually abusive comments or those which are sexist)
- homophobic, biphobic or transphobic (behaviour or language which makes a person feel unwelcome or marginalised because of their sexual orientation or gender identity, whether actual or perceived, or because of their association with people who are, or perceived to be, gay, bisexual, or transgender e.g., children of same-sex couples)
- racism (negative behaviour or language towards an individual’s ethnicity, skin colour, country of birth, speaking a different language or different religious beliefs)
- cyber (all forms of abuse involving the internet, social websites, chat rooms, mobile phones, email, text messages, photographs etc)
- relational (excluding, isolating and ostracising someone usually through verbal or emotional bullying)
- interference with possessions (hiding, stealing and destroying belongings)

These definitions are important as there is a need to make a distinction between things that may cause a young person distress during their time in school, and bullying. A friendship that has broken down for example, and has led to insults being exchanged, though distressing, would not be considered to be bullying as it was neither deliberate nor repeated. There are occasions in school when a young person is quite unaware of the hurt that they have caused to a fellow pupil, as the target had kept their feelings to themselves.

Under the Children Act 1989, a bullying incident should be addressed as a child protection concern when there is 'reasonable cause to suspect that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm'. Where this is the case, the school staff will report their concerns to children's social care.

Some forms of bullying are illegal and should be reported to the police. These include violence or assault, theft, repeated harassment or intimidation. For example, this may include name calling, threats and abusive phone calls, emails or text messages and hate crimes (for further guidance please refer to Bullying at school - GOV.UK). Where school staff feel that an offence may have been committed, they will seek assistance from the police.

The definitions outlined above must be sensitively and thoughtfully applied; a hasty classification helps neither the 'target' nor the 'perpetrator'.

AJI does not tolerate any form of bullying, whether it is physical, verbal, homophobic, transphobic, cyber or indirect.

Victims may be students who:

- Are new to the class or School.
- Are different in appearance, speech or background from other students.
- Suffer from low esteem (this may be a cause or an effect of bullying).
- Demonstrates 'entertaining' reactions when bullied e.g. tantrums, loss of control.
- Are more nervous or anxious.

All of these are only possibilities, not predictions of victimisation. The victim may be the student who is in the wrong place at the wrong time, and who reacts wrongly.

We must be alert to the behaviour of all students. It is important to be watchful and observe the social relationships between the students in the classroom during lessons as well as outside the classroom, especially during breaks and lunchtime.

Students who are bullied may show changes in behaviour. They may:

- Become shy, nervous and withdrawn.

- Feign illness and cling to adults.
- Be frequently absent.
- Have damaged clothes or property.
- Show changes in their work patterns.
- Lack concentration and do poor school work.
- Truant.
- Give improbable excuses for any of the above.

Bullying is a serious issue that can cause psychological damage even leading to suicidal tendency in some cases.

Speaking out – Victims often do not want to tell that they are being bullied because:

- Of the fear of reprisals.
- Of the shame and humiliation suffered.
- They don't want to publicise their unpopularity.
- They are too confused or upset.
- Seeking help might confirm the taunts of being a baby, stupid, etc.
- Of low self-esteem and therefore the belief 'It's my lot in life'.
- Of no confidence in adults' ability to help.
- Of the unwritten code about telling tales among peer groups.

Child-On-Child Abuse

Child-on-child abuse is most likely to include, but may not be limited to:

- bullying (including cyberbullying, prejudice-based and discriminatory bullying)
- abuse in intimate personal relationships between children (sometimes known as 'teenage relationship abuses')
- physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise causing physical harm (this may include an online element which facilitates, threatens and/or encourages physical abuse)
- sexual violence such as rape, assault by penetration and sexual assault; (this may include an online element which facilitates, threatens and/or encourages sexual violence. sexual harassment such as sexual comments, remarks, jokes and online sexual harassment, which may be standalone or part of a broader pattern of abuse)
- causing someone to engage in sexual activity without consent, such as forcing someone to strip, touch themselves sexually, or to engage in sexual activity with a third party
- consensual and non-consensual sharing of nude and semi-nude images and/or videos¹¹ (also known as sexting or youth produced sexual imagery)

- upskirting which typically involves taking a picture under a person's clothing without their permission, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification, or cause the victim humiliation, distress, or alarm, and
- initiation/hazing type violence and rituals (this could include activities involving harassment, abuse or humiliation used as a way of initiating a person into a group and may also include an online element)

Consequently, it is vital that at AJI, the ethos prevails whereby anyone who is being bullied or who has witnessed bullying taking place, needs to tell a member of staff and not to think that he is telling tales. Not telling protects the bully and gives the message that it can continue, perhaps bullying others too secretly and this silently nurtures bullying.

It is therefore important that students who are being bullied, or others who know about it, feel that they will be listened to and believed, and that action taken will be swift but sensitive to their concern.

At AJI, ALL staff are trained annually in Child Protection Training raising awareness of signs of bullying – identifying likely situations where bullying may happen, reducing the risk of it taking place and giving the staff the knowledge of how to deal with it when it happens.

Procedures to follow: These procedures should be read in conjunction with AJI's Behaviour Policy. At each stage, in keeping with our Islamic ethos, the focus of the procedures is the welfare of all the boys involved. Both the victim and the bully are in need of support.

Schools should engage in restorative practices before sanctions are considered against the child who showed bullying behaviour. Disciplinary measures must be applied fairly, consistently, and reasonably taking account of any special educational needs or disabilities that the pupils may have and taking into account the needs of vulnerable pupils. It is also important to consider the motivations behind bullying behaviour and whether it reveals any concerns for the safety of the perpetrator. Where this is the case the child engaging in bullying may need additional support themselves.

SECTION 6 – PREVENTING BULLYING

This policy is to be used as a key vehicle for communicating and celebrating the anti-bullying stance of the school with pupils, parents/carers, and the wider community. The school incorporates the Anti-Bullying Policy with the school curriculum, whole school assemblies, and all school staff training as well as taking on board other opportunities to raise awareness, such as Anti-Bullying Week and targeted group work. The policy is shared with all staff, pupils, parents/carers, and governors, at their respective points of contact with the school.

The school does not tolerate any form of bullying and discriminatory language e.g., the use of homophobic, biphobic or transphobic language. All incidents reported are taken seriously.

The school is responsible for promoting a culture of openness, trust, and support and for ensuring that all the young people in school are aware of both their rights and their responsibilities with respect to bullying. This will take place primarily through the following structures:

- induction programmes
- citizenship/PSHE/SMSC lessons
- the Student Council
- displays around school
- whole school assemblies
- pastoral programmes
- e-safety training to combat cyber-bullying
- multi-agency working including drawing on the expertise of anti-bullying organisations or specialised expertise in dealing with certain types of bullying
- ICT Acceptable Use Policy for pupils

One of the most effective ways of preventing bullying is through the curriculum, by creating effective learning environments in which:

- the contribution of all pupils is valued
- kindness and empathy are celebrated and developed
- all pupils can feel secure and are able to contribute appropriately
- stereotypical views and prejudiced language are challenged, and pupils learn to appreciate and view differences in others positively, whether arising from race, culture, gender, sexuality, ability, disability, or different family situations (e.g., children who are looked after or those with caring responsibilities)
- pupils learn to take responsibility for their actions and behaviours both in school and in the wider community and understand how their actions affect others
- all forms of bullying and harassment are challenged
- pupils are supported to develop their social and emotional skills

All UK mobile phone providers have malicious, or nuisance call, text or picture message centres set up and have procedures in place to deal with such instances. They will help you to change the number of the person being bullied if necessary. If you want to prosecute the perpetrator, contact the police. The mobile provider will work closely with the police and can usually trace calls for them. Some service providers such as Vodafone produce annual magazines for parents and carers (Digital Parenting), giving information and top tips for keeping your children safe online including cyberbullying.

SECTION 8 – ANTI BULLYING TRAINING CPD FOR SCHOOL STAFF

All Staff will have to attend Anti Bullying Training, this will help to recognise all different forms of Bullying as and when they occur. Training will be delivered Online using Tes educate portal and also Training from External agency. The Anti Bullying Alliance offers a suite of free online training for anyone that works with children and young people. The programme was particularly developed to reduce levels of bullying of disabled children and those with special educational needs (SEN) but applies to all children.
